

Council, Tuesday 3 November 2009

Opposition Policy Item: Councillor Alison Moore

Public Services in Barnet

Council believes that public services are vital to the wellbeing of Barnet's diverse community, and must be protected and developed to serve the needs of that community.

Council asks Cabinet to work with Barnet's local community to ensure that the essential services that residents want and need are not cut as a result of the recession.