Additional Comments

Under the policy section of the reports for each of the above applications Planning Policy Statements and Planning Policy Guidance Notes are stated as relevant policy.

On March 27th 2012 the Government published the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF). The NPPF sets out the Government's planning policies for England and how these are expected to be applied.

The NPPF replaces 44 planning documents, primarily Planning Policy Statements (PPS's) and Planning Policy Guidance (PPG's), which previously formed Government policy towards planning.

As such, reference to PPS's and PPG's should be discarded, and relevant NPPF policy should be considered instead.

It is not considered that the proposals are contrary to the guidance as set out in the National Planning Policy Framework.
