NOTE – The Public Interest Test

The Public Interest Test in the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000 is specifically defined – The Authority must release the information unless “in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information”.

The starting point is that there is a general public interest in release and the public authority has to decide whether in any particular case it would serve the interest of the public better to either disclose or withhold the information.

There is no legal definition of what the public interest is, but the following have been identified as some of the relevant considerations:

- There is a distinction between the public interest and what merely interests the public.
- Does it further the understanding of and participation in the public debate of issues of the day?
- Does it promote accountability and transparency by public authorities for decisions taken by them or in the spending of public money?
- Does it allow individuals and companies to understand decisions made by public authorities affecting their lives?
- Does it bring to light information affecting public health and public safety?

11. EXCLUSION OF ACCESS BY THE PUBLIC TO REPORTS

11.1 The Council may exclude access by the public to reports which in its opinion relate to items during which, in accordance with Rule 10, the meeting is likely not to be open to the public. Such reports will be marked "Not for publication" together with the category of information likely to be disclosed.

11.2 The relevant body is requested in the agenda to confirm the action set out in 11.1 by passing a resolution to exclude the press and public from the meeting. Arrangements will be made to recall the press and public immediately should the motion not be passed.

11.3 If the matter is considered in public, any related report will also become available to the public.

12. JOINT COMMITTEES

If the Joint Committee contains members who are not on the Executive of any participating authorities then the access to information rules in Part VA of the Local Government Act 1972, as applicable to meetings of the Full Council and its committees will apply.

13. MEMBERS' RIGHTS TO INFORMATION

13.1 A member of the Council may, for the purposes of his or her duty as a Member and no other, inspect any document that has been considered by a committee or the Council including background papers. Applications should be made to the Head of Governance and, if available, copies will be supplied upon request. Members have a common law right of access to council documents based on a 'need to know'. When making a request Members should clearly state the reason why they need the information they have requested.

- 13.2 A Member shall not knowingly inspect or request a copy of any document relating to a matter in which s/he:
is professionally interested; or has a pecuniary interest within the meaning of the Code of Conduct for Members as set out in this Constitution.
- 13.3 This shall not preclude the Monitoring Officer from declining to allow inspection of any document which is or would be protected by privilege in the event of legal proceedings arising from the relationship of solicitor and client and should be exempt under either the Freedom of Information Act or the Data Protection Act.
- 13.4 All reports, background papers to reports and minutes kept by any committee shall be open for the inspection of any member of the Council, as soon as the committee has concluded action on the matter to which such reports or minutes relate.
- 13.5 Members also have a legal right under the Local Government Finance Act 1982 to inspect "books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers and receipts".

Requests for information should be directed to the Director or Chief Officer concerned. If a member is unhappy with a particular Director or Chief Officer's decision, the Chief Executive will review the Director's decision. If the member is still unhappy, the request for the information will be put before the General Functions Committee.

- 13.6 Where it is not appropriate to send a Member a document on the grounds it is confidential or exempt the following procedures will be adopted for inspection, keeping in mind paragraph 13.3:
- Members should have access to the information for supervised reading.
 - This means that the Member must attend mutually agreed council premises to read the documents.
 - A paper or electronic copy will not be supplied in these cases nor will photocopying be permitted.
 - An officer with sufficient understanding and experience to answer any questions should be present, as should a lawyer
 - In some circumstances Members may be asked to sign confidentiality agreements, highlighting the members Code of Conduct provisions on confidentiality.
