

Non Executive Business Item – 3.7: Councillor Andrew Strongolou

NSCSO

Amendment in the name of Councillor Jack Cohen

Council notes that one Member of the Administration is pleased that the procurement process for NSCSO is going so well and the same Member looks forward to an early conclusion to the NSCSO procurement process but Council also notes that this process continues in the face of opposition from many quarters.

And add after:-

Council believes that the Administration must take into account the real fears of residents, employees, and many Members of Council that the process is flawed and will lead to unacceptable risk taking.

Substantive Business Item to read:

Council notes that one Member of the Administration is pleased that the procurement process for NSCSO is going so well and the same Member looks forward to an early conclusion to the NSCSO procurement process but Council also notes that this process continues in the face of opposition from many quarters.

Council believes that the Administration must take into account the real fears of residents, employees, and many Members of Council that the process is flawed and will lead to unacceptable risk taking.

Under Standing Order Part 4, Section 1, 31.5: if my item is not dealt with by the end of the meeting I ask that it be voted upon at the Council meeting.
