Member, Race Independent Advisory Group, Metropolitan Police [appointed Feb. 2013]

Research and Teaching

My research career, and my university teaching, have focussed on 19th and 20th century British & European history; contemporary British politics, modern Anglo-Jewish history, the politics of religion and ethnicity, and quality management in higher education. I have received research-grant awards from the major British funding bodies in my fields of specialism, including the ESRC, British Academy, Leverhulme Trust, Nuffield Foundation, Marc Fitch Fund and Esmée Fairbairn Trust, as well as from the New York Foundation for the Arts and a number of private trusts and individuals. I am still research-active in all my fields of specialism. I have extensive experience of teaching at BA and MA levels, and of successful PhD supervision (none of my PhD students has ever been failed or referred).
