Public Question

Nr	Agenda Item	Raised by	Question Raised
1	8	Tirza Waisel	In view of the severe cost-of-living crisis currently experienced in the UK and its particular impact on Barnet's poorest residents, namely those who are unemployed and rely for their income solely on state benefits, those who are therefore considered as the lowest income band for purposes of Council Tax calculations, for whom paying even 28% of CT causes hardship, will the council restore the 100% Council Tax rebate for households in this group, which the previous (Tory) administration had cruelly cancelled?
