Councillor Hart commended the preparatory work for the Better Care Fund item and noted the importance of reviewing the final draft of the BCF report prior to submission to NHS England by 4 April 2014.

The Adults and Communities Director Dawn Wakeling updated the Board on the revised version of the Better Care Fund. The Board heard that the BCF is likely to be updated prior to submission to NHS England by 4 April 2014. Ms Wakeling updated the members of the Board on the feedback received from NHS England and the Local Government Association following submission of the draft BCF on 14 February. The Board heard that the feedback has been very positive and complimentary in relation to the vision and aspiration set out in the draft plan.

Ms Wakeling informed the Board of the details of the draft BCF, highlighting the affordability of the new model of care, from high-cost institutional care through to more community based approaches. A 5-tier model has been drafted (page 58: table 1) to support the submission of the revised plan, detailing the cost of the services for the BCF model. Ms Wakeling noted that the draft version of the Plan will incorporate the discussed amendments in order to strengthen the Plan and increase confidence in its deliverability.

Dawn Wakeling updated the Board on the legislation needed to ensure that the Disabled Facilities Grant can be included in the Fund. Ms Kennally informed the Board that the transfer of funding from the NHS to the Council would engage Section 256 of the NHS Act 2006 during 2014/15.

Councillor Hart noted that self-management and self-care will be key areas underpinning the success of the draft Plan in order to maximise wellbeing and independence. Ms Wakeling noted that in terms of implementing the Better Care Fund model, Public Health has agreed the lead role around tier 1: Self-Care. Dr Andrew Howe (Public Health) informed the Board that lessons from a stakeholder workshop will be taken forward by Public Health in order to develop a strategy for new self-care programmes.

Dawn Wakeling noted that Barnet Clinical Commissioning Group is working towards a shared approach around commissioning and contracting in the acute sector with other CCG's in North and Central London.

The Head of Healthwatch Barnet, Selina Rodrigues noted the development and effective co-ordination of the Better Care Fund. Kate Kennally stated that under the Council's new committee structure, the Adults and Safeguarding Committee will take responsibility for Adult Social Care. Further decisions about adults' social care contributions into the Integrated Care model will be need to be taken by the new Adults and Safeguarding Committee.

Ms Kennally highlighted the importance of understanding the size of the financial challenge in order to work towards achieving a 15% activity shift over a 5-Year period. It was emphasised that this can be achieved through re-shaping parameters around the 'core' model and by bringing resources together. The Strategic Director for Communities noted the need to understand the risk linked to the future financial positions of the Local Authority and the Barnet Clinical Commissioning Group.

Ms Kennally noted that the Financial Planning Group has agreed to deliver a detailed business case that will make recommendations around greater level of pooling of budgets and risk-sharing.

Ms Wakeling stated that the Better Care Fund has been drafted to reflect values aligned to the published national allocations for Barnet. It was noted that for 2014-15 the ambition is to align and invest further funds in the BCF and to develop further pooled funding arrangements.

The Chairman referred to section 10.3 (p88) of the report and requested that the minutes be re-worded to 'the CQC report was published on 23

November 2013 and the Trust was found to be non-compliant against 3 of the 5 domains of essential standards of quality and safety.'

Councillor Hart queried whether Barnet, Enfield and Haringey Mental Health Trust are on course to be compliant with the essential quality standards and whether learning has been applied across the Trust. Mary Sexton, the Director of Nursing, Quality and Governance at Barnet Enfield Haringey Mental Health Trust highlighted that for each area of non-compliance, an action plan has been drafted to deliver progress against all standards and that measures have been taken to address the quality concerns raised.

Ms Kennally raised concerns over the use of seclusion rooms as bedrooms for overnight emergency admissions. Ms Sexton informed the Board that in addition to safeguarding measures, the Trust has purchased additional capacity in order to address the bed pressures which have resulted from increased acute admissions in 2013/14.

Selina Rodrigues, Head of Healthwatch Barnet, queried what assurances have been given in response to the quality concerns raised in the CQC reports. The Board heard that in the current financial year, the increased acute admissions were expected to create additional funding pressures on the availability of inpatient beds and increased use of out-of-beds from the private sector.

Ms Sexton highlighted that the Clinical Quality Review Group (CQRS) continues to monitor the situation to assure that the community pathways are working effectively and that the current reduced capacity in Tier 4 services is not affecting local residents in accessing local services.

Ms Kennally emphasised the importance of reviewing the findings and lessons learnt from the CQC inspections to ensure that there is clarity of expectations across the Trust as to the actions being undertaken and to monitor the progress going forward.

Lee Bojtor, Chief Operating Officer at Barnet, Enfield and Haringey Mental Health Trust informed the Board of the discussions with the CCGs care provision and the development of the mental health strategy in order to improve service quality.

It was noted that the Concordat requires local health and care commissioners to have reviewed hospital placements for people with learning difficulties and to support anyone inappropriately placed in hospital to move to community-based support by beginning of June 2014.

Ms Wakeling informed the Board that the number of Barnet patients with learning disabilities within the scope of the Concordat has been reduced from 17 to 12 since the last report was made to the Board. Councillor Hart highlighted that this number should be viewed comparatively to other London Boroughs.

The Board heard that despite significant progress, challenges remain in achieving the objectives of the Concordat to reach a state of full compliance by 1 June 2014. A number of patients are mandated to undergo treatment which may only be provided in a hospital setting, under the Mental Health Act. It was noted that some patients are subject to Court of Protection proceedings which have resulted in delays in the progress of these cases.

Councillor Sachin Rajput noted the need to scrutinise and review of community-based services. Councillor Hart emphasised the importance of regular reviews to ensure that moves from hospital settings take place safely and as quickly as possible.

Dr Clare Stephens, Barnet CCG Board Member, noted the importance of promoting outdoor activities and the effective use of parks and green spaces for exercise.
