Appendix B:

Barnet Public Health Commissioning Outcomes: London context

The charts below compare various Barnet public health commissioning outcomes with statistical neighbours' and London-wide activity, where relevant data is available.

Public Health Commissioning London context area Barnet Schools registered with Healthy Schools London (number and %), by London borough, Schools June 2017 Wellbeing (source: Department for Education) Programme 100% 100% 100 91% 87% 86% 87% 87% 86% 86% 88% 90% 90 78% 79% 81% 81% 80% 80 68% 70% 70 Schools (no.) 60% 54% 45% 47% 50% 50 40% Schools (no.) 30% 30 Schools (%) 20 20% 10 10% *Barnet and its five closest statistical neighbours are shown in brighter colours BARNET RANKING: In June 2017, Barnet had the most schools (101) registered with Healthy Schools London, of any London borough, and ranked midway for proportion of schools registered. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet had the largest number of schools registered and ranked midway for the proportion of schools registered.

BARNET RANKING: In June 2017, Barnet ranked fifth for Bronze awards (56 awards), fourth for Silver awards (30 awards) and third for Gold awards (10 awards), of all London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked second for Bronze awards, first for Silver awards and first for Gold awards.

Child and adult healthy weight

BARNET RANKING: In 2015/16, Barnet ranked seventh lowest for the proportion of both 4–5 year olds and 10-11 year olds with excess weight (i.e. overweight or obese), of all London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked midway for 4–5 year excess weight and second lowest for 10–11 year excess weight.

BARNET RANKING: Over 2013–2015, Barnet ranked 14th lowest for the proportion of adults with excess weight, of all 33 London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet had the lowest proportion of adults with excess weight.

Smoking cessation

BARNET RANKING: In 2016, Barnet ranked midway for adult smoking prevalence, compared with other London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet had the highest smoking prevalence.

Support for employment of residents with mental health needs

BARNET RANKING: In Q1 2016, Barnet ranked third highest for employment of people with mental illness, of all London boroughs with data available. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked second highest.

BARNET RANKING: In 2016, Barnet ranked sixth for the proportion of new GUM clinic attenders receiving an HIV test, of all London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked second.

Adult Drug and Alcohol Treatment and Recovery Pathway

BARNET RANKING: In 2015, Barnet ranked lowest for non-opiates treatment success and fourth lowest for opiates treatment success, of all London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked lowest for non-opiates treatment success and second lowest for opiates treatment success.

BARNET RANKING: In 2015, Barnet ranked 10th lowest for alcohol treatment success. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked midway for alcohol treatment success.

Young People's Drug and Alcohol Service

BARNET RANKING: In 2014/15 (the most recent data available), Barnet ranked 12th for self-reported cannabis use by 15 year olds, and sixth for use of other drugs, of all London boroughs. Compared to its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet had the highest levels of self-reported cannabis use and self-reported other drugs use by 15 year olds.

Support for self-management by people with long-term health conditions

BARNET RANKING: In 2016, Barnet ranked 14th lowest for the estimated proportion of residents with a limiting long-term condition, of all London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet had the lowest estimated proportion.

NHS Health Checks

BARNET RANKING: Over 2013/14 to 2015/16, Barnet had the fifth lowest proportion of NHS Health Check offers, in reporting London boroughs. Compared with its five closest statistical neighbours, Barnet ranked midway for Health Check offers.